

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2011 Olivet Lane Vineyard Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

An old friend, who always reminds me of why I am so passionate about Pinot Noirs from the Russian River Valley. Mature vines (planted in 1974) produced aromas of fresh black cherries, chanterelle mushrooms, cardamom, lavender and cola. Now a much more textural wine with flavors of kirsch, pie spices and creamy toasted oak. The wonderful balance of acidity and tannin leave your mouth watering for another taste. Rich silky tannin makes this one to enjoy for many years.

THE VINEYARD

Located on the western benchlands of the Santa Rosa Plain, the Olivet Lane Vineyard is one of the oldest vineyards in the Russian River Valley. It was planted in 1975 by the Pellegrini family, with Chardonnay and Pinot Noir vines exclusively.

HARVEST 2011

The 2011 vintage was marked by another cool year that produced wines with tremendous purity and depth. Similar in many ways to 2010 – without the extremes - it had very low yields and below average cooler weather. But, the growing season in 2011 was much more consistent with gentle warming days and very cold summer nights. As a consequence, the vintage produced wines with incredible purity, remarkable acid and tannin balance, while expressing the uniqueness of each individual site and region. The signature of this vintage is one where the wines have bright fruit qualities, sound acidities and elegant tannin profiles. It is truly a vintage worth seeking.
