

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Anderson Valley Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

This is our second vintage crafting the Anderson Valley blend from three distinct vineyard sites. The wine highlights pennyroyal and subtle fir-tip notes that are representative of the region. Fresh herb notes complement blueberry and plum flavors. The palate is full of fine-grain tannins, which are chased by delicate acidity and subtle bitterness that elegantly punctuates the finish.

THE VINEYARDS

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from the following vineyards: Conzelman, Ferrington, and Purcell.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 49% new, 51% 1 yr.

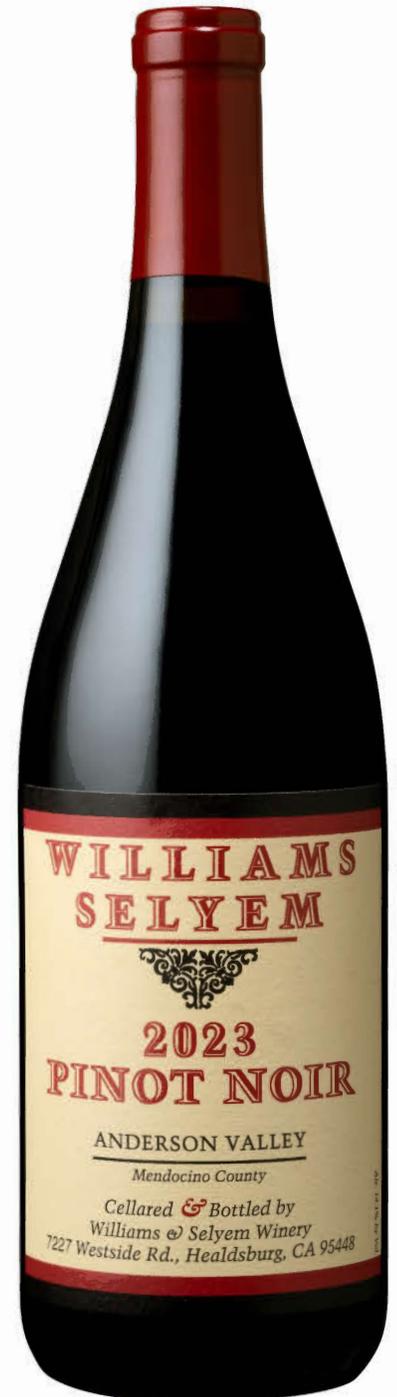

Barrel Aged: 11 months

pH: 3.48

TA: 0.56g/100mL

Alc: 14.1%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Central Coast Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Lush red cherry fruit opens this blend, complemented by wood spices and fresh vanilla bean. The Central Coast Pinot Noir is sourced from younger vines at the Vista Verde Vineyard, where blocks are selected for their contribution of fruity freshness. When combined with Vista Verde's typical minerality and balanced tannins, we are rewarded with a wine that is deliciously approachable.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 34% new, 34% 1 yr., 32% 2 yr.

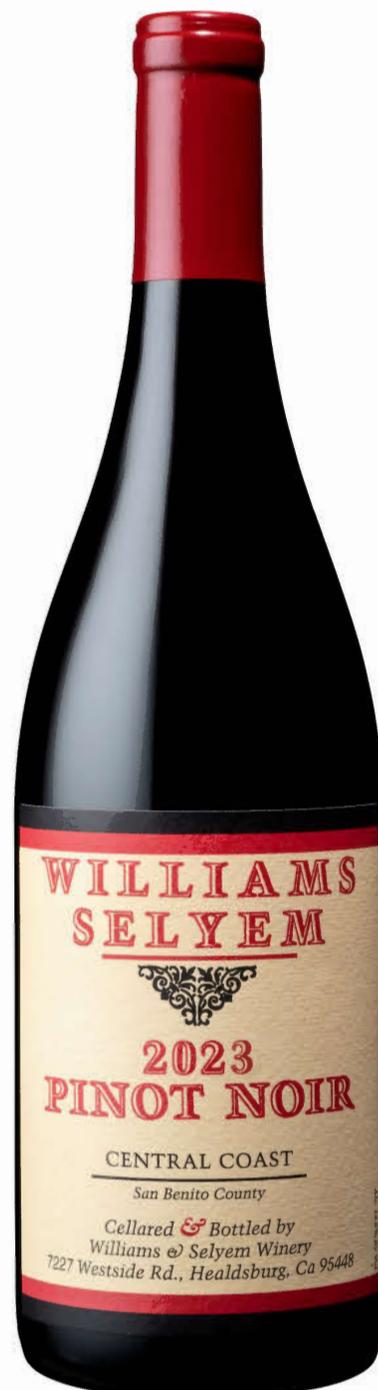

Barrel Aged: 11 months

pH: 3.49

TA: 0.58g/100mL

Alc: 13.4%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Eastside Road Neighbors Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

A dark, brooding counterpoint to our Westside Road Neighbors blend, the Eastside Road Neighbors Pinot Noir is sourced from vineyards that contribute to the dark fruit character of boysenberry and blackberry compote. Red spruce and dried mint leaf aromas add to the brambly character of this wine. It has dense tannins and medium acidity, which will pair well with rich braised meat dishes. An excellent follow up to the 2022 vintage that garnered the #8 wine of the year from Wine Spectator.

THE VINEYARD

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from three unique sites along Eastside Road: Calegari Vineyard, Foss Vineyard, and Lewis MacGregor Estate Vineyard.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 64% new, 36% 1 yr.

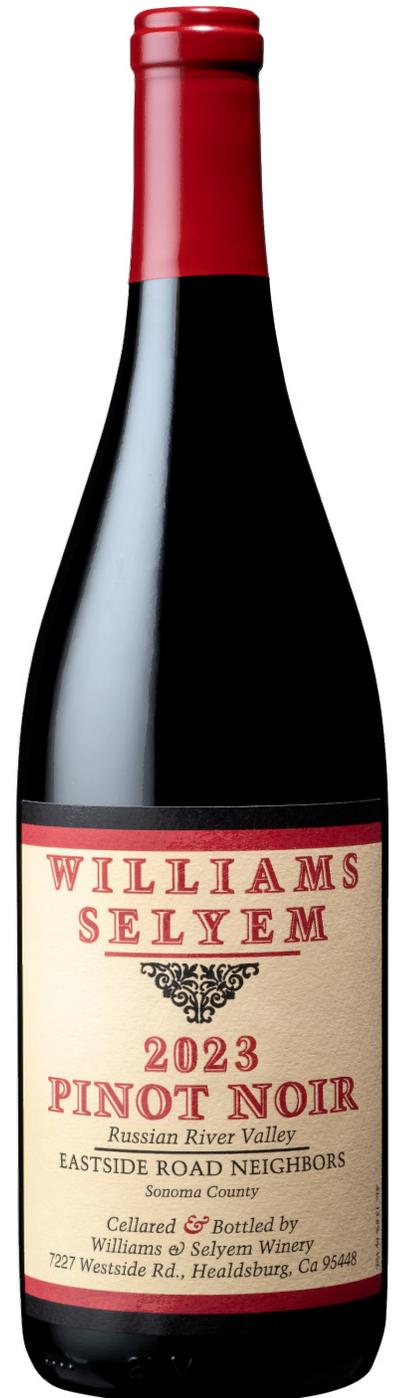

Barrel Aged: 15 months

pH: 3.47

TA: 0.59g/100mL

Alc: 13.9%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Martaella Vineyard Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Our third vintage from the Martaella Vineyard illustrates the dark and brooding nature of the Russian River Valley terroir. The nose is an enticing play between Earl Grey tea and ripe blueberry with subtle leather notes. Hints of cloves and orange zest balance the flavors of black cherry and dark plum. Planted to a higher density vine spacing, this concentrated wine delivers a lingering, mouth-coating finish.

THE VINEYARD

This 58-acre property is planted to 42 acres of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in the heart of the Russian River Valley. The vineyard sits atop a knoll, where the climate is influenced primarily by cooling fog from the Pacific Ocean, a few miles to the west.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 53% new, 47% 1 yr.

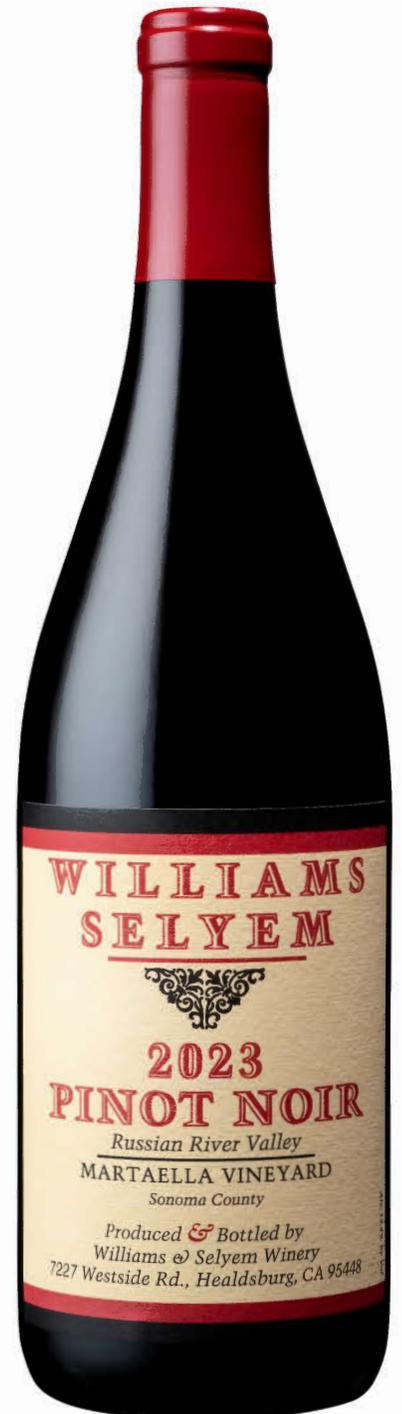

Barrel Aged: 15 months

pH: 3.50

TA: 0.57g/100mL

Alc: 13.8%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Westside Road Neighbors Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The nose is layered with blueberry and black cherry fruit and warm spices of nutmeg and allspice in this gorgeous vintage of our classic blend. Subtle confectionary notes of almond paste and spiced plum jam are reminiscent of holiday fruitcake. Cola and star anise flavors join in creating a multi-dimensional treat in the glass. The palate is rich with soft cocoa-like tannins and a textbook mineral finish.

THE VINEYARDS

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from neighboring vineyards along Westside Road: Allen, Bacigalupi, Bucher, Flax, Rochioli Riverblock, Riversmoke, and our Williams Selyem Estate.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 60% new, 40% 1 yr.

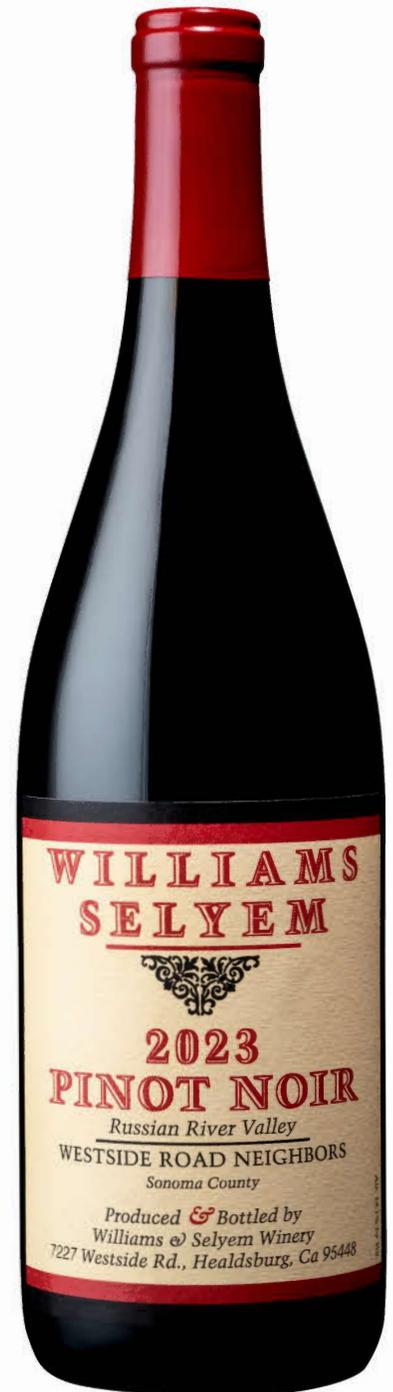

Barrel Aged: 15 months

pH: 3.53

TA: 0.56g/100mL

Alc: 14.0%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Olivet Lane Vineyard Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Sourced entirely from a block of Martini-clone Pinot Noir, this thick-skinned clone's signature character is dark and brooding, with leather and English breakfast tea aromas predominating. Cinnamon and balsam flavors are supported by red raspberry and cranberry fruit. The texture of this wine is substantial, with tea-like tannins resulting in a long and memorable finish.

THE VINEYARD

Located on the western benchlands of the Santa Rosa Plain, the Olivet Lane Vineyard is one of the oldest existing vineyards in the Russian River Valley. It was planted in 1975 by the Pellegrini family to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir vines exclusively.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 65% new, 35% 1 yr.

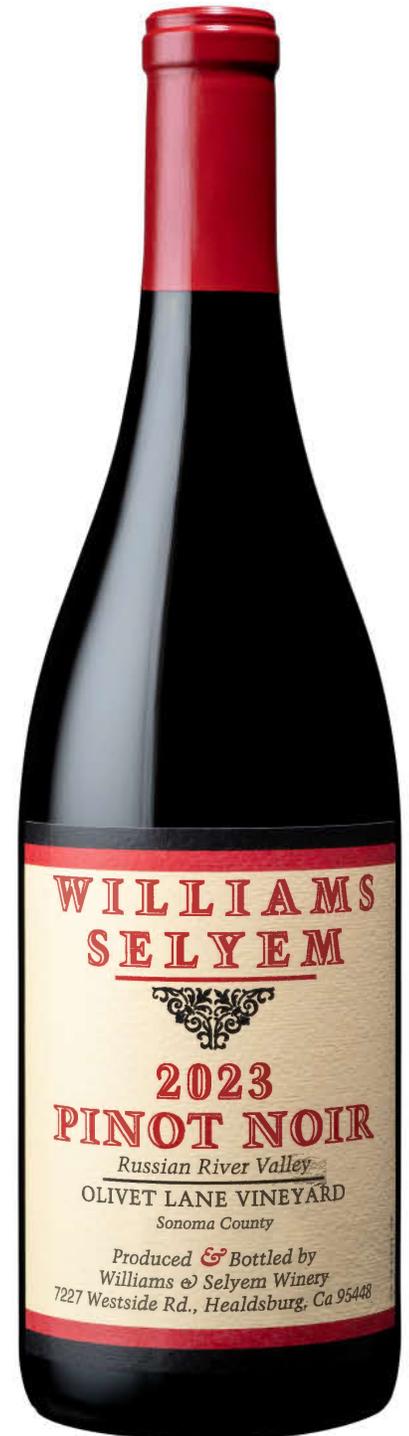

Barrel Aged: 15 months

pH: 3.51

TA: 0.59g/100mL

Alc: 14.1%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

This alluring wine opens with notes of sarsaparilla, Bing cherries, and ripe wild strawberries. Do not let the Russian River Valley Pinot Noir's seductive introduction fool you, it is a complex wine. Layered notes of anise and dried sage encourage the drinker to explore the depth of flavors in the glass. The palate beautifully combines citrus and tea notes with velvety tannins and a lengthy finish.

THE VINEYARDS

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from the following vineyards: Drake, Hallberg, Laguna, Martaella, Rochioli Riverblock, Saitone Estate, and Williams Selyem Estate.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 41% new, 59% 1 yr.

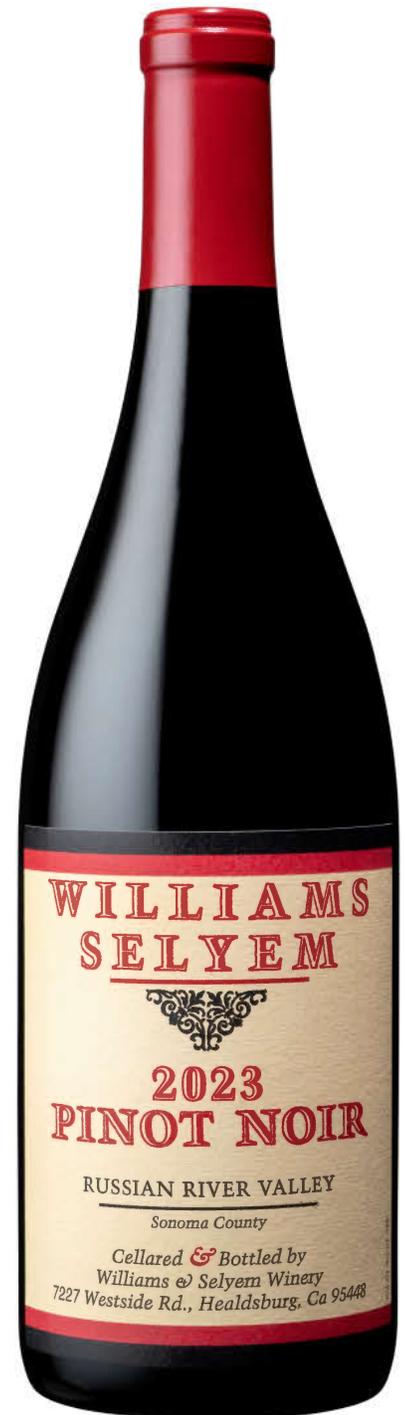

Barrel Aged: 11 months

pH: 3.55

TA: 0.58g/100mL

Alc: 13.8%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The Sonoma Coast blend showcases the brooding, fog-laden terroir of our coastal vineyard sites. The initial nose of this wine is all about sous bois (forest floor) and savory herbal notes. Pomegranate and plum flavors dominate the palate, giving way to firm tannins that signal to its cool-climate growing region. The finish is rich and concentrated, with a pleasant taste of bittersweet chocolate.

THE VINEYARDS

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from the following vineyards: Falstaff, Putnam, Starkey, and Terra de Promissio.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 42% new, 58% 1 yr.

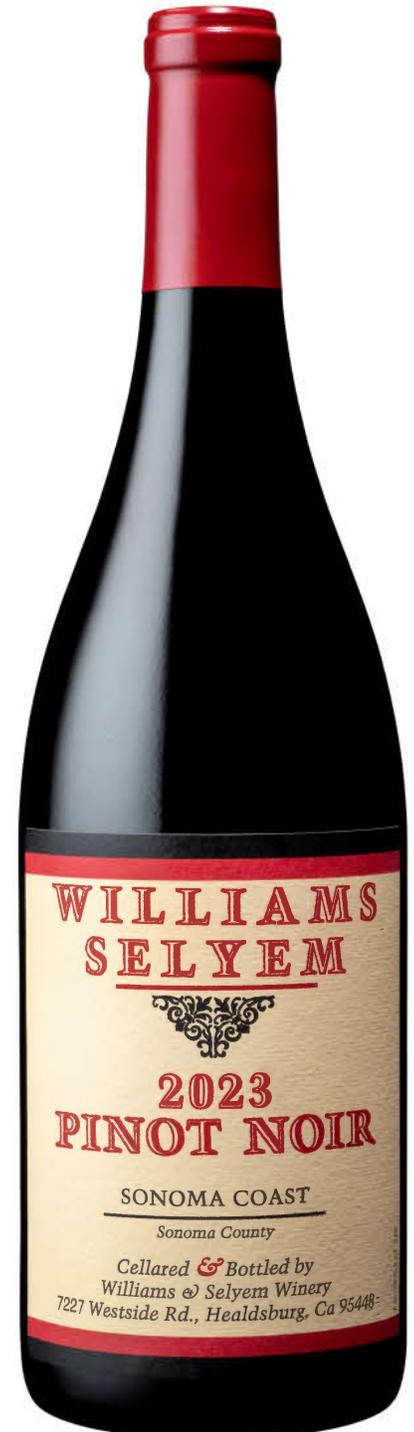

Barrel Aged: 11 months

pH: 3.50

TA: 0.61g/100mL

Alc: 13.6%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Sonoma County Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The incredible diversity of our growing region is evident in this blend's assemblage of vineyard lots. The flavors show remarkable synergy while showcasing the unique characteristics of each vineyard source. Dried lavender and rose potpourri aromas of the Williams Selyem Estate blend harmoniously with fresh herbal tarragon notes from Rochioli Riverblock. Rounding out the nose are red fruit and citrus rind scents from Drake Estate and Laguna Ranch. The components from Martaella and Olivet Lane Vineyards carry the palate, giving it both acidic freshness and substantial tannins. We hope you enjoy this blend as an introduction to our portfolio of Pinot Noirs. It is a wine that can be shared and enjoyed on any occasion.

THE VINEYARDS

The Pinot Noir for this blend was sourced from the following vineyards: Drake, Laguna, Lewis MacGregor Estate, Martaella, Olivet Lane, Rochioli Riverblock, and the Williams Selyem Estate.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 27% new, 26% 1 yr., 47% 2 yr.

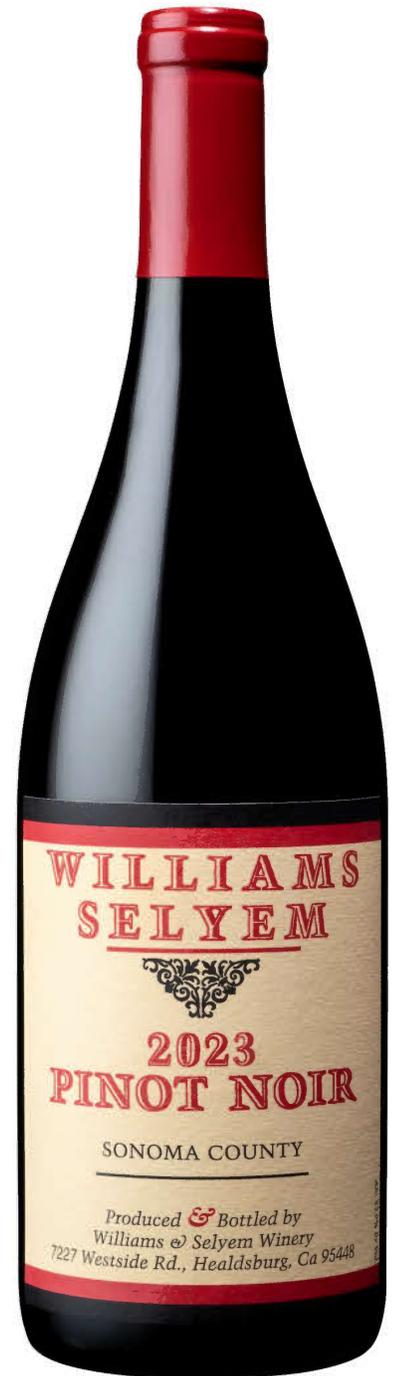

Barrel Aged: 11 months

pH: 3.53

TA: 0.57g/100mL

Alc: 13.7%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Terra de Promissio Vineyard Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Perfumed notes of dried herbs and Chinese five spice jump from the glass. The typical red fruit flavors of blood orange and Bing cherry harmonize with earthy mushroom and cedar shavings notes. The dusty tannins and moderate acidity are attributed to the vineyard's long and cool growing season due to its proximity to San Pablo Bay. This Pinot Noir from the Sonoma Coast AVA exemplifies the balance and finesse of the 2023 vintage.

THE VINEYARD

"The Land of Promise" is family owned and operated by husband and wife team Charles and Diana Karren. The Karrens bought a 50 acre dairy ranch in 1999 and planted over 33,000 Pinot Noir vines on 32 acres in 2002. Terra de Promissio had its first harvest in 2005.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 67% new, 33% 1 yr.

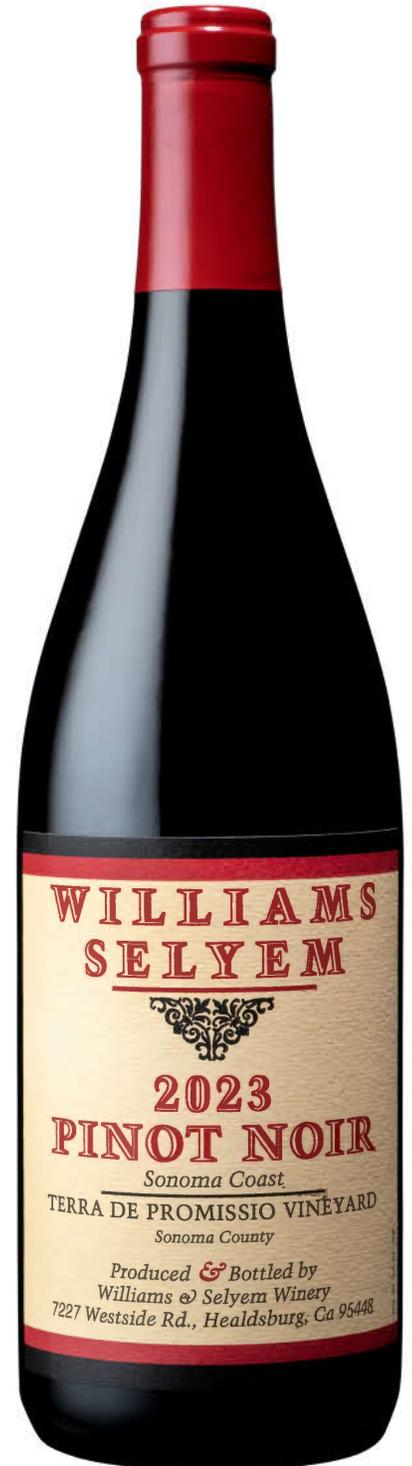

Barrel Aged: 15 months

pH: 3.59

TA: 0.55g/100mL

Alc: 13.5%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Heintz Vineyard Chardonnay

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

This layered wine showcases the beauty of the outstanding Heintz Vineyard in West Sonoma County. The cool growing region produces a wine that intertwines tropical and citrus fruit with aromas of crème brûlée and lemon curd. The palate evokes the region's long history of apple farming, as this wine exudes flavors of yellow apple skin and baked apple pie. The fresh mineral finish is a hallmark characteristic of Heintz Vineyard Chardonnay. It can be enjoyed for many years to come.

THE VINEYARD

This vineyard site has belonged to the Heintz family for over 100 years. In 1980, it was planted with Clone 4 Chardonnay. Located in the Russian River Valley town of Occidental and sitting at an elevation of 1,000 feet, cool foggy evenings and warm sunny days allow the grapes an extended hang time, producing fruit with high acid levels that give great structure and balance to the wine.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 33% new, 23% 1 yr., 22% 2 yr., 22% 3+ yr.

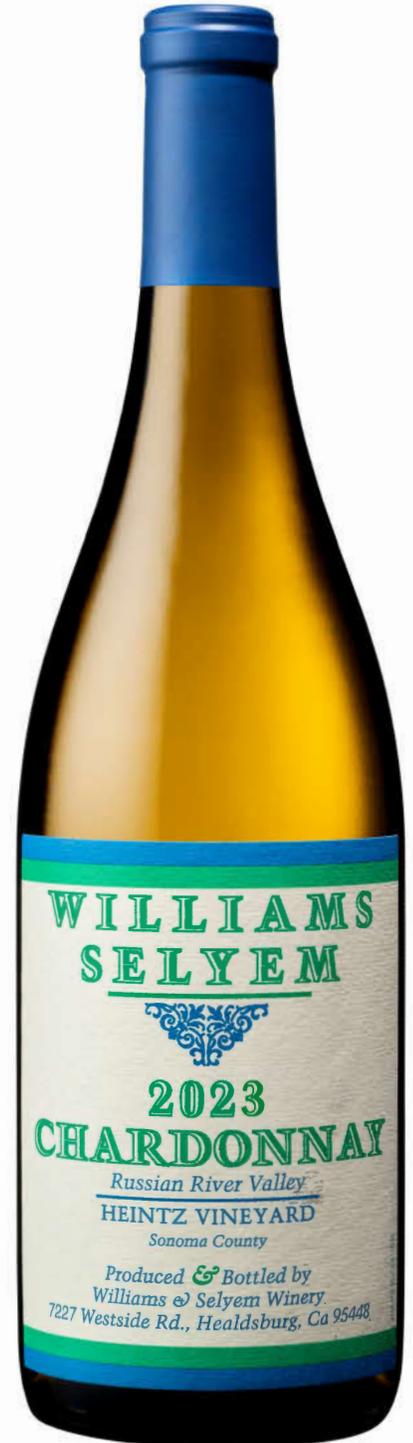

Barrel Aged: 13 months

pH: 3.30

TA: 0.70g/100mL

Alc: 13.7%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Unoaked Chardonnay

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The Unoaked Chardonnay opens with bursts of jasmine and honeysuckle floral notes, followed by delicate quince and stone fruit aromas. Fermented in stainless steel tanks and receiving weekly batonnage (lees stirring) during aging, the resulting wine has both weight and verve. Flavors of yellow apple and pear are emphasized by a texture reminiscent of pear skins. This wine is approachable upon release but deserves 2-3 years of cellaring.

THE VINEYARDS

The Chardonnay for this blend was sourced from the following vineyards: Lazy W Ranch, Martaella, Olivet Lane, and our Williams Selyem Estate Vineyard.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

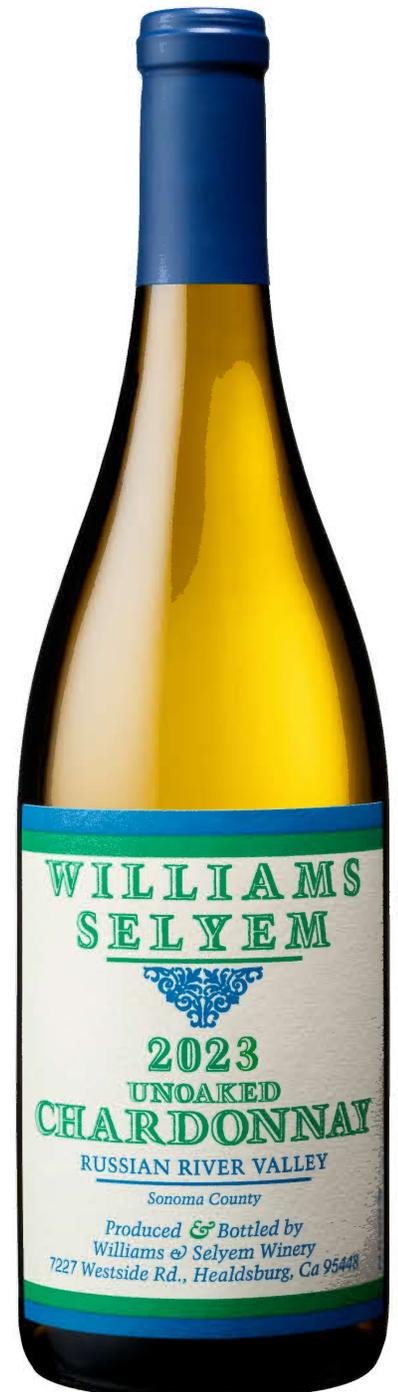

TECHNICAL NOTES

pH: 3.29

TA: 0.58g/100mL

Alc: 13.8%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Belloni Vineyard Zinfandel

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The Belloni Vineyard is an exciting new release from vines planted around 1900 that still produce magnificent fruit. Situated in a prime location on Wood Road in the town of Fulton, Belloni is among the great old vineyards in Sonoma County. Planted to mostly Zinfandel, this is a classic field blend with Alicante Bouchet, Carignan, Petite Sirah, and many other varieties interspersed in the field. Made famous by Joel Peterson and Ravenswood, this wine is a classic, with black fruit character on the nose and highlights of poached stone fruit, anise, and wood spices. Owing to the diversity in the field, the wine showcases a multifaceted and complex aroma and palate. Black fruit flavors give way to earthy and five-spice notes. The concentration is compelling and is highlighted with refined tannin and well-balanced acidity that exudes elegance. A serious Zinfandel from a classic site that is sure to wow.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 24% new, 23% 1 yr., 23% 2 yr., 30% 3+ yr.

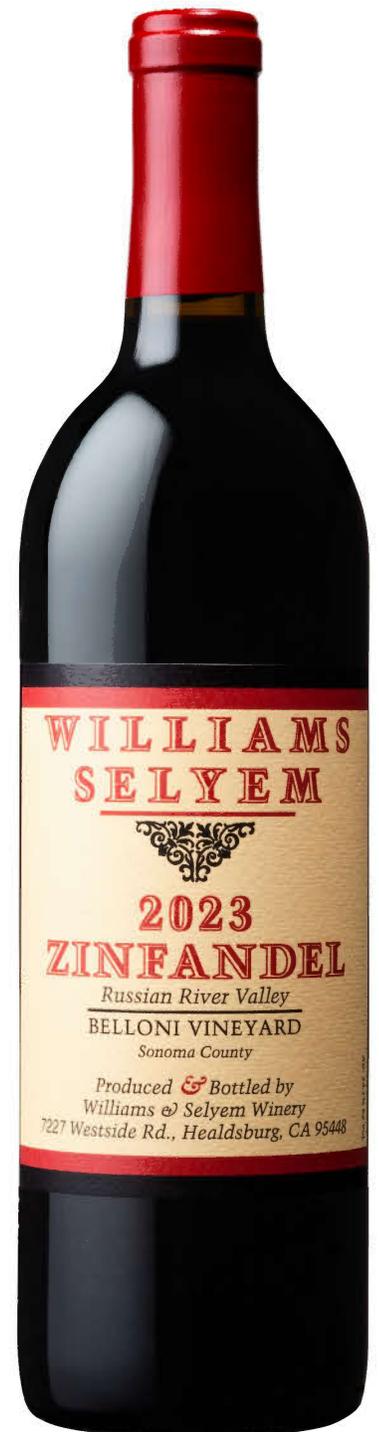

Barrel Aged: 13 months

pH: 3.42

TA: 0.62g/100mL

Alc: 15.1%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Fanucchi-Wood Road Vineyard Zinfandel

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Right off the bat, this wine's vibrant violet-red hue hints that it is destined to be a standout! Spice notes of sassafras and nutmeg complement bright boysenberry and stone fruit aromas. The Fanucchi-Wood Road Zinfandel has racy acidity that is balanced by concentrated, polished tannins. Sourced from the remarkable 133-year-old vineyard on Wood Road, this wine is beautiful upon release but has qualities that will support many years of cellaring.

THE VINEYARD

Planted in 1890, this organically grown, dry-farmed vineyard is located near the town of Fulton in the Russian River Valley. The vineyard is mostly Zinfandel, but is also interplanted with a small percentage of Alicante Bouchet and Petite Sirah.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 38% new, 25% 1 yr., 13% 2 yr., 24% 3+ yr.

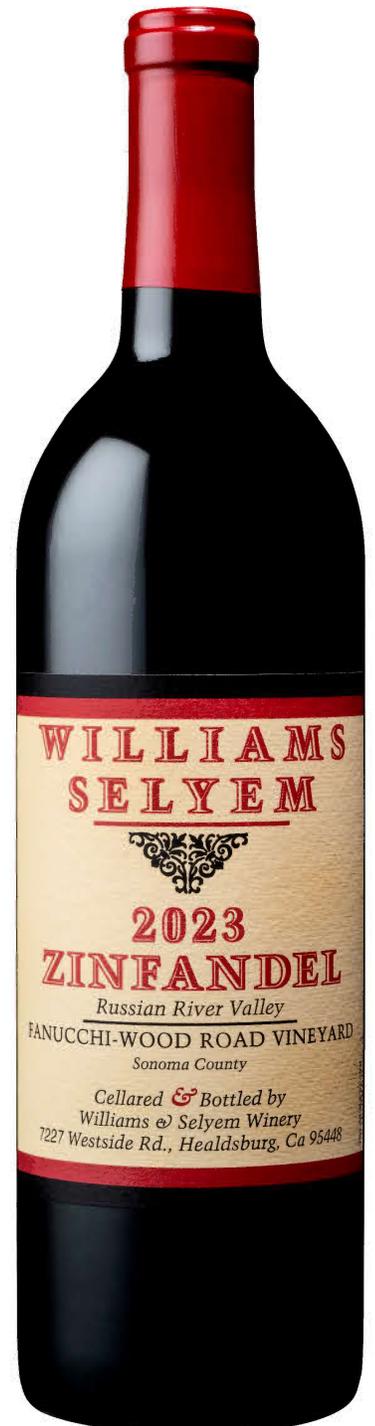

Barrel Aged: 13 months

pH: 3.34

TA: 0.68g/100mL

Alc: 14.8%

Released 2025

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2023 Papera Vineyard Zinfandel

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

This classic Zinfandel opens with intense orange zest and red currant aromas. Papera's characteristic red raspberry and wild berry bush marry well with its cinnamon, clove, and peppercorn notes. As this wine continues to evolve in the glass, herbs de Provence and dried sage scents are highlighted. The harmonious play of dense tannins with mouthwatering acidity makes the 2023 Papera Zinfandel an exceptionally food-friendly wine.

THE VINEYARD

Papera is an old vine Zinfandel vineyard, located on the eastern side of the Laguna de Santa Rosa in the Russian River Valley appellation. Planted in 1934, the vines are head-trained and primarily dry farmed.

HARVEST 2023

We experienced a welcome sense of normality in 2023, after tumultuous weather patterns during previous growing seasons, including drought conditions, heat events, and hail. This vintage began auspiciously with historical average rainfall and modest temperatures at the start of bud break. Ample sunshine and early heat resulted in even growth of the canopies, creating uniformity and balance as the vines entered the flowering cycle. While it was similarly cool at the outset of 2011, the 2023 heat units built slowly, and the weather was ideal by May. The flowering period was quick, and the fruit set bountiful. The weather was perfect in June and July, with a few heat spikes that kept the plants healthy and sustained. Mid-season crop adjustments were necessary to ensure good vine balance as veraison approached. With the cooler start to the vintage and the normal fog pattern of August, the ripening cycle slowed, and the crop achieved ideal hang time for tannin development at modest sugars. Across the board, the wines exhibit terrific purity of character with excellent tannin resolution. While hot and dry years can create wines of shocking intensity, these cooler vintages showcase the elegant style of Williams Selyem.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Barrel Description: 23% new, 23% 1 yr., 18% 2 yr., 36% 3+ yr

Barrel Aged: 13 months

pH: 3.30

TA: 0.72g/100mL

Alc: 14.9%

Released 2025

